Adventure Challenge Course

The City of Los Angeles, Department of Recreation and Parks at Camp Hollywoodland are thrilled to have the first fully operational Adventure Challenge Course; Consisting of High Ropes, Low Ropes and Team Building activities.

High Ropes: Is the term used to describe any Adventure Challenge Course (ACC) that have components for participants off the ground and using a 'belay' system to keep a person safe. In the case of Camp Hollywoodland we have a majestic 25 foot high ACC that soars through the trees on 4 distinct physical/mental/emotional challenges and completes with a 120 foot zip line ride. We also have a climbing tower complete with a 25 foot faced rock climbing wall.

Low Ropes: Is a term use to describe any ACC that have components for the participants that take place on ground or close to it. The safety system for Low Ropes is group/person based, meaning that it is each persons responsibility to lend a hand in keeping each other safe. In the case of Camp Hollywoodland we have Low Ropes ACC that comprise walking on cables, swinging from rope, lifting people through small openings, team climbing over a log and more.

Team Building: Is a term used to describe any activity that gets persons in a group to better communicate, become familiar, and work together. These activities may include throwing objects, running, jumping, physical contact, logic skills, critical reasoning, speaking in front of other persons, catching objects, stacking, memory exorcises and other physical/mental/emotional challenges that will better build a team.

The ACC at Camp Hollywoodland will require you to be reasonably: Physically fit i.e. able to move with out assistance, bend and lift objects, reasonable hand eye coordination. Mentally fit i.e. able to reason through logic problems, follow 2 to 5 step instructions and recall information given with in a few minutes. Emotionally fit i.e. able to work with other people who you may not know, be able to give and receive criticism and willing to try new activities.

On the reverse side is a Waiver/Release form. Please sign it and return it to the Camp Director or designated staff person. We ask that you please read all the information and ask for clarification when needed. Please also let the Camp Director or designated staff know of any health problems that may affect your participation i.e. 'bad knee', hip replacement, asthma, timed medications, heart conditions and such. Knowing ahead of time will allow us to modify and adapt activities when able to better facilitate your enjoyment.
