

Lead Facilitator

Kristin Skarie

From Rochester, NY, Teamworks President, Kristin Skarie, is an international speaker, educator and entrepreneur. She has twenty-two years of extensive leadership and team-building experience with college, corporate, and community organizations. Kristin's background includes higher education administration as well as organization development in healthcare, manufacturing and retail. She founded Teamworks in 1997 while working full time on a college campus, which is now an established group of talented facilitators who value education as a key component to creating sustainable change in the world. In her free time, Kristin volunteers with the Girl Scouts and the Jumpstart literacy program. She is also a member of the Key Leader Advisory Committee and a Lead Facilitator for the The LeaderShape Institute, an international leadership initiative for college students.

Kristin is a contributing author to the book, "Lessons from the Road: Inspirational Insights from Leading Speakers in Education". She received her Bachelor of Science in Physical Education from the University of Wisconsin and her Masters in Higher Education Administration from Indiana University.
