

Lead Facilitator

Megan Fate Marshman

Megan has always displayed traits of a free spirit through her boundless energy and love for life. As the Director of the Women's Ministry at Hume Ministries, Azusa Pacific University professor, Small Business Development Center business advisor, leadership speaker and main character in a Children's book series 'Megan Hearts,' Megan is currently living her dream of pointing young people toward a hope bigger than themselves. She has been traveling all around the United States, encouraging each one to become fully enthralled with their unique purpose in life as leaders. She graduated with a M.A. degree in Organizational Leadership from Azusa Pacific University. She got married on 12/11/10 to a guy she met at church named Randy. They both live in the mystical, ugly, beautiful melting pot that is Long Beach, CA. Some interesting facts: she has started the wave at a pro baseball game, she has won prizes on both the Price is Right and Let's Make a Deal, and does not have a good singing voice. Simply, Megan is a motivational and spunky speaker who desires to empower youth. You can find out more at: www.meganfate.com
