

KEY LEADER[®]

LEAD FACILITATOR

Tracey Devereaux

Tracey Devereaux has more than 15 years' experience in various education systems, including extensive experience in designing curriculum programs and guidelines to fit the needs of different learning environments. As an accomplished educator, he has proven repeatedly his unique ability to capture the vision and strategic objectives of an education system, and from this create a curriculum model that improves performance.

Offering a rare blend of creative and strategic strengths, Mr. Devereaux assisted the start-up of several unique education systems throughout the province of Nova Scotia, including an education program for Homeless and At-Risk Youth in the province's capital city, and a University Preparatory High School for adults ages 18-65 in a rural community. He spent five years as the Vice Principal and English/social studies Department Head at King's View Academy, an independent school that applies Gold Lake principles to its educational model. Currently, Mr. Devereaux is employed by the Nova Scotia Department of Justice, where he designs and implements individualized curriculum for mid to high-end young offenders.

Tracey co-chairs the School Advisory Council at Portland Estates Elementary School, represents his political party as the Liberal leader for Dartmouth East, and sits as a member of the Board of Directors for the Dartmouth Kiwanis Club. In addition, Mr. Devereaux belongs to the Dartmouth Historical Society, sits on the Board of Directors for King's View Academy, and shares his expertise with other independent schools as a Gold Lake consultant.

Mr. Devereaux achieved his Bachelor of Education at St. Francis Xavier University in 1995 and his Bachelor of Arts at Cape Breton University in 1992. He lives with his three children in Dartmouth, Nova Scotia.